

Long Valley Junior Women's Club
2016 Science Fair
6th-8th Grade Judges Score Sheet

Project Number: _____ Group: _____

Project Name: _____

Judge Name: _____

Missing (1)	Attempts Made (2)	Meets Expectations(3)	Exceeds Expectations (4)	Outstanding (5)
-------------	-------------------	-----------------------	--------------------------	-----------------

Use of Scientific Method

The problem or question is stated.

--	--	--	--	--

The hypothesis (educated guess) is appropriately stated.

--	--	--	--	--

The project/display demonstrates ingenuity in the design and development.

--	--	--	--	--

The project lists all sources for research (books, websites, persons, magazines, etc.).

--	--	--	--	--

There is a complete list of materials used including measurements.

--	--	--	--	--

The independent and dependent variables for the experiment have been defined.

--	--	--	--	--

The hypothesis has been tested through the experiment and answered.

--	--	--	--	--

The conclusion summarizes the results and refers to the hypothesis.

--	--	--	--	--

The project reflects an appropriate degree of effort and/or difficulty.

--	--	--	--	--

Oral Presentation

The student communicates an understanding of the scientific method.

--	--	--	--	--

The scientific content of the project is communicated effectively.

--	--	--	--	--

Understanding of the subject matter is shown by use of appropriate vocabulary explanation.

--	--	--	--	--

The presentation is clear, well-organized and easy to follow.

--	--	--	--	--

The presenter speaks slowly, loudly and clearly and makes eye contact with the judges.

--	--	--	--	--

Exhibit/Display

The display is neat and well-organized.

--	--	--	--	--

The materials and/or ideas are used in a creative way.

--	--	--	--	--

Sufficient data has been collected and represents a complete story.

--	--	--	--	--

Total Score: _____

Comments: